

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What's new about Intuit's Privacy Statement dated September 8 2017?

We have renewed our annual commitment to the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield framework, agreed to by the U.S. Department of Commerce and the European Commission.

We have added our commitment to the Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield.

We've made small adjustments to our description of Intuit Single Sign-on (Intuit Account) to make it clearer.

We've corrected a few minor grammar and typographical errors.

2. Are you doing something different with my information?

No. Our commitment to data stewardship, keeping your information protected and international frameworks such as Privacy Shield remains unchanged. More details on protecting your information can be found here and on the Intuit Security website.

3. What is Privacy Shield?

The Privacy Shield Program is a framework agreed to by the U.S. Department of Commerce and the European Commission to allow for adequate protections for the transfer of personal information about European Union (EU) individuals. Privacy Shield only covers transfers of personal information from the EU to the U.S.

Effective, September 8, 2017